

VIA: Air Pouch No. 129
(SPECIFY AIR OR SEA POUCH)

DISPATCH NO. [REDACTED] 757

SECRET

CLASSIFICATION

TO : Chief, [REDACTED]
FROM : Acting [REDACTED]
SUBJECT: GENERAL -- Opera/Intel
SPECIFIC -- Karl Eichmann
Ref: [REDACTED] 400

DATE 6 April 1954

1. We have checked Eichmann with [REDACTED] again and he is still unable to find any record of subject. [REDACTED] check included a search of the Visa department plus his own records. This leads us to believe no person has entered Iraq under the name of Eichmann. The Visa department did offer the following information as the only possible similarity with the name Eichmann:

a. A Swedish company requested visas for two Germans, Karl Heinrich and Harold Engemann (ch is often written as j or g in Arabic). Engemann is a Christian and was born on 17 January 1924 in Latona, Germany. He carries German passport 19702 (possibly 9702) issued in Hamburg on 16 May 1952. He is married to Wilfred Allen Kalunder, who was born in Stads, Germany on 27 September 1931. She carries passport 9051 issued in Oden-dorff, Germany on 3 March 1951.

2. [REDACTED] did not have any record of Arnold Schleicher or Major General Katzman.

3. The [REDACTED] has been unable to establish the fact that the Nairn bus had an accident during November 1952. If we knew the exact day this wreck was supposed to have taken place, we would request a copy of the manifest from [REDACTED]
